

ANTICLINE

by Emily Greene

The Anticline mitts are a stylish, modern set of cuffed fingerless gloves featuring a striking pattern of twisted ribbing and diagonal cables that wrap elegantly around the wrist and hand. The cozy ribbed cuffs are designed to be worn turned back for the convenience of fingerless gloves, but can also be unfolded for extra warmth on the chilliest days. These mitts work up beautifully in both solid and tonal hand-dyed yarns, making them perfect for that skein of sock yarn in your stash that's just too gorgeous to wear on your feet. The Anticline mitts knit up shockingly quickly despite the fine gauge; the traveling cable motifs give this pattern that addictive, 'just one more row' quality that will have you finishing your first mitt over a weekend.

PATTERN INFORMATION

Yarn

217 (256) yards [198 (234) meters] of fingering-weight wool or wool-blend yarn
Sample shown in Magpie Fibers' Swanky Sock (fingering-weight, 80% Merino wool / 10% cashmere / 10% Nylon), in colorway 'Mesa'

Gauge

53 stitches x 42 rows = 4" [10 cm] square in 1x1 Half-Twisted Ribbing knit in the round, blocked and unstretched

28 stitches x 40½ rows = 4" [10 cm] square in stockinette stitch knit flat, blocked*
Please note, stockinette gauge is provided to aid in swatching for needle size selection only; the pattern does not use stockinette stitch.*

Needles

One pair 32" [80 cm]+ circular needles (if using the Magic Loop method) or one set double-pointed-needles (DPNs) in size needed to obtain gauge
Recommended size: US 1 / 2.25 mm

Sizes

S/M (M/L), to fit palm circumference 6½ - 7½" (7½ - 8½") [16.5 - 19 (19 - 21.5) cm]

Finished Dimensions

5 (6)" [12.5 (15) cm] circumference, blocked and unstretched. Both versions measure 7¾" [19.5 cm] long with 1¾" [4.5 cm] cuff turned back (9½" [24 cm] total length, unfolded). Note that the allover ribbed fabric of these mitts will stretch significantly when worn; for a comfortably snug fit, it is recommended you select the size whose finished measurements are 1½ - 2½" [4 - 6.5 cm] smaller than your palm circumference. Sample shown in S/M size, worn with 2¼" [5.5 cm] negative ease.

Notes

- Mitts are knit in the round from the bottom up.
- All chart rounds are read from right to left.
- Each numbered chart round is worked only once during Thumb Shaping sections; where Thumb Shaping instructions call for specific shaping rounds to be repeated, continue to work new rounds of chart throughout shaping.
- Both odd and even rounds are shown on chart. Even round stitches are always worked as they appear.
- Instructions for size S/M are listed first throughout, with size M/L following in parentheses. Where only one instruction is given, it applies to both sizes.
- Note the distinction between similar abbreviations k2tog-tbl (knitting two stitches together through the back loop - one stitch decreased) and k2-tbl (two stitches worked individually through the back loop - no stitches decreased).

SPECIAL TECHNIQUES

Alternating Cable Cast-On

The alternating cable cast-on technique is optional, but highly recommended. This cast-on method yields a neat, stretchy edge that transitions into the 1x1 ribbing above seamlessly, and is an easier alternative to tubular cast-on methods.

Using working yarn and gauge needle (suggested size US 1 / 2.25 mm), create a slipknot on L needle, leaving a tail just long enough to weave in later. This counts as the first (purl) stitch cast-on.

1. Insert R needle into first stitch on L needle knitwise, wrap yarn around R needle as if to knit and pull loop through, without dropping stitch from L needle. Place loop onto L needle and tighten gently with working yarn. This counts as one (knit) stitch cast-on.
2. Insert R needle in between first and second stitches on L needle from the back. Wrap yarn around R needle as if to purl and pull loop through to the back. Place loop on L needle and tighten gently with working yarn. This counts as one (purl) stitch cast-on.
3. Insert R needle in between first and second stitches on L needle from the front. Wrap yarn around R needle as if to knit and pull loop through to the front. Place loop on L needle and tighten gently with working yarn. This counts as one (knit) stitch cast-on.
4. Repeat steps 2 & 3 until you have cast-on the total required number of stitches.

Tubular Bind Off

Break yarn, leaving a tail roughly four times as long as the edge to be bound off. Thread tail onto yarn needle, and work bind off as follows:

1. Insert yarn needle into first (knit) stitch on L needle purlwise, and draw tail through gently, leaving stitch on L needle.
2. Bring yarn needle around to back of work (under tip of L needle). Insert yarn needle in between first and second stitches on L needle from the back, and draw tail through gently to front of work. Insert yarn needle into second (purl) stitch on the L needle knitwise, draw tail through gently to back of work.
3. Insert yarn needle into first (knit) stitch on L needle knitwise, and draw tail through gently, slipping stitch off of L needle tip.
4. Bring yarn needle to front of work. Insert yarn needle into second (knit) stitch on L needle purlwise, and draw tail through gently, leaving stitch on L needle.
5. Insert yarn needle into first (purl) stitch on L needle purlwise, and draw tail through gently, slipping stitch off of L needle tip.
6. Bring yarn needle around to back of work (under tip of L needle). Insert yarn needle in between first and second stitches on L needle from the back, and draw tail through gently to front of work. Insert yarn needle into second (purl) stitch on the L needle knitwise, draw tail through gently to back of work.
7. Repeat steps 3-6 until only two stitches remain on L needle.
8. Repeat step 3.
9. Repeat step 5.

Cabling without the use of a Cable Needle

This technique is optional, but can make knitting cabled fabrics immensely faster and more enjoyable. As a fringe benefit, you'll never need to stop knitting because of a misplaced cable needle again! I've provided written instructions below, but you may wish to see this technique demonstrated the first time you try it. A quick search online will yield numerous excellent video tutorials.

The following instructions are written for the four cable types included in this pattern; once you've gotten accustomed to the basic principles, this technique can be adapted to work almost any size or kind of cable.

To work a 1/1 RCb cable:

The typical instructions for this cable are: slip one stitch to cable needle and hold in back, knit one stitch from L needle through the back loop, knit one stitch from cable needle through the back loop.

To work this cable without a cable needle, you will rearrange the next two stitches on the left needle, bringing the second stitch forward in front of the first, by following the instructions below:

1. With your right needle, reach across the front of the next stitch on your left needle (subsequently referred to as 'Stitch A'), and insert your right needle tip into the second stitch on the left needle (subsequently referred to as 'Stitch B') purlwise.
2. With your right hand, pinch your knitting just below the first two stitches on your left needle. Carefully slip both stitches off the left needle, keeping them pinched with your right hand. Stitch B should now be on your right needle, and Stitch A should be sitting open behind the right needle.
3. Insert your left needle tip into the open Stitch A, moving this stitch back onto the left needle. Slip Stitch B back from your right needle to your left needle. You have now successfully rearranged Stitches A & B.
4. K2-tbl.
